SUMMARY

SPARTANAT reports on the incident of 22 January 2026 at the SHOT Show. The piece describes how I was able to save a severely injured man's life as a first aider and treated him together with other helpers until emergency services took over. The publisher also issued an English version of the article.

This PDF is Michael Paa's own summary. It is not the publisher's original article and not a complete translation of the piece.
